Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Discover Provence first-hand, one of the most beautiful and historically rich regions in France. Provence is known for its ancient wine country, olive groves, and lavender fields. The cities of Paris, Nice, and Cannes are all within easy reach, but the heart of Provence is Avignon, the ancient capital of the papacy, and Aix-en-Provence, the birthplace of Paul Cézanne. AHI Travel is proud to offer this tour, led by UCLA professor Robert Gurval, whose expertise will allow you to experience Provence as an insider. This 10-day tour includes a visit to the ancient city of Aix-en-Provence and a stay at the charming Hotel de la Comtesse. In addition to exploring Provence, you will have the opportunity to visit the Roman monuments of Arles and the Luberon region, a popular destination for artists and writers.

UCLA Alumni

Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Discover Provence amid bustling market stalls, fragrant gardens, beautiful vineyards and stunning mountain vistas. This land of invention and ingenuity with its quiet roads and sleepy countryside, it’s easy to imagine his ever-present muse, and Augustus, the Roman emperor and art collector, who chose to retire to Provence.

Professor Robert Gurval

Professor Robert Gurval is a UCLA exhibitions to provide a cultural educational experience and our Provence tour will visit many of the sites mentioned in his research and teaching areas. Our tour will depart from the city of Aix-en-Provence, a city that has been a cultural center for thousands of years.
