Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Discover Amalfi - The Divine Coast, one of the most incredible regions in Italy. Home to luscious red sunsets, the Amalfi Coast still calls out to viewers with its beauty. Discover the quaint coastal towns of Vietri sul Mare, Amalfi, Positano and Ravello, perched on mountains that cascade into the sea. Step back in time at the ancient ruins of Pompeii, Herculaneum and Paestum. Cruise the sparkling blue waters to the Isle of Capri to see its natural wonders and discover luscious Sorrento. Throughout your trip, sample delicious cuisine while immersing yourself in the Italian lifestyle.

Joining us is Kathryn McDonnell, an assistant professor in the Department of Classics. Kathryn specializes in the social aspects of tomb construction, the archaeology of non-elites and historical and ancient slavery. McDonnell lived in Italy as an undergraduate student and later as a Fulbright Scholar, and she still spends several months there every year conducting research in Roman tombs.

This trip combines the security, sure and value of group travel with opportunities for independent exploration. Space is limited to 36 travelers, so make your reservations today.

Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Discover Amalfi—The Divine Coast, one of the most incredible regions in Italy. Home to Hooven’s ‘fabled shores’, the Amalfi Coast still pulls at nature’s beauty. Discover the quaint coastal towns of Vietri sul Mare, Amalfi, Positano and Ravello, perched on mountains that cascade into the sea. Step back in time at the ancient ruins of Pompeii, Herculaneum and Paestum. Graze the opening blue waters off of Capri to see its natural wonders and discover lovely Sorrento. Throughout your trip, sample delicious cuisine while immersing yourself in the Italian lifestyle.

Joining us is Kathryn McDonnell, an assistant professor in the Department of Classics. Kathryn specializes in the ancient history and archaeology of the Greek and Roman worlds. She taught at Cornell University and the College of Charleston before joining UCLA in 2012, where her research focuses on the social aspects of tomb construction, the archaeology of non-elite and funerary architecture. McDonnell journeys Italy as an undergraduate student and later as a Fulbright Scholar, and she still spends several months there every year conducting research in Roman tombs.

This trip combines the security, ease and value of group travel with opportunities for independent exploration. Space is limited to 36 travelers, so make your reservations today.
