Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Cruise the ancient trade routes of Phoenician, Roman and Moorish mariners aboard the Five-Star small ship M.V. TERE MOANA on this comprehensive itinerary to the coastal jewels of the Iberian Peninsula—not often visited by Americans—during the best time of year!

The exclusively chartered, Five-Star M.V. TERE MOANA, a sophisticated and authentic small ship, accommodates only 90 guests, features complimentary alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages and includes all shipboard gratuities. Travel in style while enjoying the benefits afforded by small ship cruising—the camaraderie of like-minded travelers, exemplary service and a unique opportunity and journey highlight to be on deck as you cruise into the heart of Seville on Spain’s legendary Guadalquivir River. The M.V. TERE MOANA was relaunched in 2013 under new ownership following an extensive multimillion-dollar refurbishment.

En route from Barcelona to Lisbon, visit three UNESCO World Heritage sites and Portugal’s lesser-traveled Algarve region. Call on two of the enchanting Balearic Islands—Palma de Mallorca and Ibiza. Visit the regal city of Granada. See the magnificent Alhambra Palace and the spectacular sights that inspired works by Gaudí and Picasso. Stand on Gibraltar’s “Top of the Rock” to see the Pillars of Hercules spanning the scenic Strait of Gibraltar. Enjoy the melancholy rhythms of fado music and the joyful beat of flamenco. Lectures by onboard study leaders enlighten you with the history, legends and modern life of these dramatic cities and villages.

Join fellow travelers for this outstanding program and great value. The combination of an exclusive itinerary, intimate small ship and Early Booking Savings proved to be a quick sellout last season. I encourage you to make your plans early and reserve soon while space is still available.

Sincerely,

Christel Pailet

Flourishing Cultures along Iberia’s Historic Trade Routes and the Age of Discovery are showcased on this voyage to fortified medieval towns and modern cities that retain the artistic and architectural treasures from the Moorish Period. Previous exposure to the Greeks and Romans and the Moors’ acceptance of both Jewish and Christian life allowed for the coexistence of diverse cultural groups, which led to great leaps forward in algebra, medicine, optics, horticulture, art and architecture. This blossoming of knowledge and ability was the impetus behind the Golden Age of Discovery, when ships sailed from these shores to the New World. It was those journeys, which brought the bounty back to Iberia, that created great wealth and established an aristocratic tradition of savoring the leisurely pace of Mediterranean life in the idyllic seaside cities, towns and villages that you will experience on this voyage.

Barcelona, Spain
The lively and beautiful quarters of Barcelona’s Mediterranean metropolis are filled with the artistic treasures of Antoni Gaudi, Picasso and Dalí. The city center has the greatest concentration of Gothic architecture in Europe and proudly displays its heritage and roots as a Roman trading port.

Palma de Mallorca, Balearic Islands
The imposing citadel overlooking the harbor was converted into the Spanish Royal Palace of La Almudaina in the 13th century. See the magnificent sandstone Palma Cathedral, begun in 1230 and constructed over 300 years; it represents the heights of the Catalan Gothic style. In the village of Valldemossa, visit the famous Carthusian Monastery, the former residence of composer Frédéric Chopin.

Ibiza, Balearic Islands
Be on deck as we approach the Mediterranean island of Ibiza, a spectacular UNESCO World Heritage site not often visited by Americans. Visit the well-preserved, walled Old Town and tour the island’s

Renaissance fortifications and the historic Las Salinas Reserve, where the Carthaginians began extracting salt from the sea over 2000 years ago.

Granada, Andalusia
Granada is scenically located atop three hills framed by the dramatic backdrop of the snow-clad Sierra Nevada Mountains. From here, monarchs of the Nasrid Dynasty ruled for 250 years over the last Muslim kingdom in Spain, leaving a priceless architectural legacy—the magnificent Alhambra, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

◆ LISBON POST-CRUISE OPTION

The idyllic Balearic Island of Ibiza, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is famous for its cove beaches, mesmerizing crystal-clear waters and high towering cliffs, and it is one of Europe’s oldest towns.
Known locally as La Seu, the Catalan Gothic cathedral in Old Palma was built on the site of a former Moorish temple following the conquest of Mallorca by King James I of Aragon.

Enjoy time at leisure to walk through its outer precincts, admire the genius of medieval Moorish craftsmen within and then stroll through the beautifully landscaped Generalife Gardens.

Gibraltar, British Crown Colony

The southernmost tip of the Iberian Peninsula, Gibraltar was considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules that marked the boundary of the known world. Drive to the “Top of the Rock,” the 1400-foot-high limestone promontory guarding the Strait of Gibraltar, which separates Europe and Africa. Observe the amusing antics of Gibraltar’s Barbary apes, the only colony of wild monkeys in Europe. See the impressive geological wonders in St. Michael’s Cave and, across the strait, Jebel Moussa, the mountain said to be the second Pillar of Hercules. Enjoy an afternoon at leisure to explore “The Rock” on your own.

Seville, Andalusia, Spain

Enjoy the unique experience of cruising into the heart of extraordinary Seville, Andalusia’s lively capital, on the Guadalquivir River. Then drive along Colón Avenue, lined with typical Sevillana houses, to the neoclassical Maestranza Bullring (the largest in Spain) and the Golden Tower, a remnant of Seville’s Moorish fortifications. Walk through Santa Cruz Quarter, the old part of the city, a gleaming maze of white houses and flower-filled patios. Tour the legendary Alcázar, a UNESCO World Heritage site featuring the distinctive 14th-century, Mudéjar-style former residence of Seville’s Moroccan and Spanish rulers. The magnificent Cathedral is a classic example of late Gothic architecture and is Europe’s second-largest Christian house of worship after St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome. Inside, view the monument to Christopher Columbus, whose remains were transported here from Havana, Cuba, in 1902. Later, enjoy a traditional flamenco dance performance on board the ship.

Portimão, the Algarve, Portugal

On Portugal’s charming, sun-washed southern coast, in the historic province of Algarve, lies Portimão. Settled in ancient times by the Phoenicians and Romans, the Algarve was later ruled by the Moors, and today its Moorish heritage survives in its distinctive architecture and savory regional cuisine. During the 15th and 16th centuries, intrepid Portuguese mariners, including Vasco da Gama, set sail from the Algarve’s shores on voyages of discovery that eventually circled the globe before triumphantly returning to Lisbon. Visit the scenic port town of Lagos, once the center of trade between Moorish Portugal and Africa, where weathered sandstone cliffs form pillars rising 60 feet from sparkling turquoise seawater. Here, admire the Baroque Church of St. Anthony, with its stunning interior of gold-gilded, carved wood.

Lisbon

Lisbon’s rich cultural heritage is reflected in its well-preserved palaces, magnificent churches and impressive castle.
