Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends:

Take in mesmerizing tropical scenery and ancient relics as you cruise from Miami to Lima, passing through the Panama Canal—one of the most legendary waterways in the world. Depart Miami for palm-fringed Key West, once home to author Ernest Hemingway. Relax on Cozumel’s dreamy white-sand beaches or dive below its sapphire-blue waters to admire stunning coral formations. View intriguing Mayan ruins near Costa Maya and Santo Tomas, stroll past beautifully restored temples in Belize, and explore the colorful backdrop of Roatan. Discover exotic splendors in Costa Rica’s lush rainforests before cruising the famous Panama Canal en route to the port of Fuerte Amador and cosmopolitan Panama City. Sail to experience Manta’s cultural museums and Guayaquil’s sparkling riverfront promenade. Then head to Salaverry, a gateway to archaeological treasures from the pre-Inca era, followed by Lima, Peru’s historic capital. Witness its timeless colonial architecture and pre-Columbian temples or consider extending your visit with an optional trip to the “Lost City of the Incas,” Machu Picchu.

Joining us is popular UCLA Alumni Travel Lecturer Professor Peter Narins, a tropical biologist who teaches courses on animal communication, neurobiology, sensory physiology and auditory science in the UCLA Department of Integrative Biology and Physiology. To date, he has carried out 53 overseas biological expeditions on all seven continents plus Madagascar, and in the last four years, has delivered 81 invited research presentations in 27 different countries.

This exciting voyage combines a unique itinerary with a majestic ship, Oceania Cruises Regatta. Graceful and inviting, this 684-passenger vessel offers every indulgence for an unforgettable retreat at sea. Space is limited, so sign up now for your ideal stateroom or suite. Also, the incredible offers of 2-for-1 cruise fares with free airfare* and $3,000 savings per stateroom are available only until April 17, 2015. Don’t miss the opportunity to explore the captivating landscapes and cultures of Central and South America along with fellow alumni. This trip sold-out in a couple of weeks last year.
