GRADES OF THE BEAGLE

The genius of Charles Darwin thrived aboard the H.M.S. Beagle, and the book of his discoveries would change all of our ideas of the world. From South America to the Galapagos Islands, to the high mountains of the Andes, to the unexplored regions of Australia, to the supercontinent of South America, Darwin's findings would make him the father of evolutionary biology.

Jean-Luc Margot

The 1993 Nobel Prize-winning physicist, Jean-Luc Margot, is the director of the Galapagos Program, which focuses on understanding the role of tectonics (movement of the Earth’s plates) in controlling the geology and evolution of the Galapagos Islands. He is an expert in understanding the role of plate tectonics in creating the Galapagos archipelago, and his research interests include the role of plate tectonics in the evolution of the Galapagos Islands and the role of plate tectonics in the evolution of the Galapagos Islands and the Galapagos archipelago.

Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

We invite you to join us on this once-in-a-lifetime passage to Patagonia and the Antarctic. Embracing the icy capes of Cape Horn and traversing the Drake Passage to the Polar Oceans aboard the luxurious Crystal Symphony. Discover the ancient wildlife and pristine nature of the Falkland Islands, Patagonia, Tierra del Fuego and the Chilean fjords.

An unforgettable highlight of this adventure is a three-day cruise through the heart of Antarctica, from Port Stanley, Falkland Islands, UK to the main stop of the cruise. Enjoy the striking landscapes of the South Pole and the majestic icebergs of the Antarctic Peninsula. The journey will take you through the turquoise waters of Antarctica. Embrace the soul-stirring beauty of Earth’s Southernmost Land.

Joining us is Women’s History Pioneer, Dr. Anne Margaret Ross, Professor of English at UCLA. Dr. Ross’s expertise in women’s history will be invaluable as we explore the innumerable sites of the Patagonia and Antarctic regions. With her guidance, we will gain a deeper understanding of the region’s rich history and the fascinating individuals who have left their mark on this vast wilderness.

The program will include a variety of activities, from lectures by leading experts to hands-on experiences in the field. Whether you are interested in wildlife photography, scientific exploration, or simply enjoying the immersive environment, this program has something for everyone.

The “jewel of the Patagonia & Antarctic” cruise is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to explore some of the most remote and beautiful places on Earth. With Crystal Cruises, you can expect luxurious accommodations, world-class cuisine, and unparalleled service.

Reserve your cruise to Patagonia & the Antarctic today! To book your trip, please visit travel.alumni.ucla.edu or call 310-206-0613. We look forward to sharing this incredible experience with you.

UCLA Alumni

Featuring UCLA Professor Jean-Luc Margot

Department of Earth, Planetary, and Space Sciences
Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

I am writing to inform you about an opportunity to travel to Patagonia and the Antarctic as a guest of the UCLA Alumni Association. The cruise, which will depart from Buenos Aires, Argentina, will feature visits to Chili, Argentina, and Punta Arenas. The trip includes a pre-cruise extension to Buenos Aires, with a return from Santiago, Chile. The cruise will be conducted on Crystal Cruises’ Star Princess, and will feature visits to Chile and Argentina.

This trip is a benefit of membership in the UCLA Alumni Association. UCLA Alumni Travel is a division of AHI Travel, which is a full-service travel program that offers a wide range of travel opportunities to UCLA alumni and their families. AHI Travel is a member of the UCLA Alumni Association and is committed to providing excellent service and competitive pricing.

The cruise will depart from Buenos Aires on March 6, 2016, and will return to Buenos Aires on March 16, 2016. The cruise will include visits to Valparaíso, Chile, Montevideo, Uruguay, Punta Arenas, Chile, and the Plazas de Valdés in Argentina. The cruise will also include a pre-cruise extension to Buenos Aires, with a return from Santiago, Chile.

The cruise will feature a variety of activities, including visits to local sites, tours of museums, and opportunities to experience the local culture. The cruise will also include a visit to the Wonders of Patagonia, a region known for its stunning landscapes and wildlife.

The cruise fare includes all meals, accommodations, and activities, as well as all applicable taxes and fees. The cruise fare does not include airfare or gratuities. The cruise fare is $10,125 per person, based on double occupancy, and includes all meals, accommodations, and activities.

If you are interested in learning more about this trip, please contact AHI Travel at 800-382-4963 or visit their website at ahi-travel.com. You can also call UCLA Alumni Travel at 310-206-0913 or visit their website at travel.ucla.edu.

Thank you for your support of the UCLA Alumni Association.

Sincerely,

Joe Soto
Director, Alumni Travel
