Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Join us on a once-in-a-lifetime trip to Vietnam and Cambodia, two warehouses countries ruled with all the boxes that comes with long histories and diverse cultures. Shit through scenic ancient temples, sample traditional Vietnamese and Cambodian cuisine, and watch artisans create traditional handicrafts.

Your partner begins with three nights in Saigon (Ho Chi Minh City), Vietnam. Then evaluates a seven-night/four-night trip, consisting of a six-night/ three-night tour of Angkor Wat before spending three nights in Siem Reap, Cambodia, gateway to the magnificent Angkor temples.

This is an exceptional opportunity to experience the same, their Durham & ancient, yet great at our own pace. Our travelers also offer plenty of time to explore independently, allowing you to make decisions of your own pace. Space on this special trip to be limited. Your reservation today!

Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Join us on a five-star river cruise through Vietnam and Cambodia’s ancient treasures. From the Spice Islands to the present-day Mekong, we'll explore Vietnam’s wonderful diversity and charm, the rich history and culture of Cambodia and the maritime empire of Angkor.

The Mekong River is the perfect setting for this five-night pre-cruise extension. We'll sail from Saigon to Hanoi, exploring the history and culture of the region on board the AmaWaterways Premier ship, AmaLotus. This river cruise will include overnights in Saigon (Ho Chi Minh City), Angkor, Siem Reap, and Hanoi. You will have the opportunity to visit local markets, temples, and historical sites, as well as enjoy unique regional cuisine.

The program features visits to ancient capitals, beautiful landscapes, and cultural attractions. You will have the chance to experience the vibrant culture and history of Vietnam and Cambodia, from the bustling streets of Saigon to the serenity of Angkor.

The cruise price includes round-trip air transportation from JFK, SFO, or LAX. Please call for special air add-on rates from other gateways. The price guarantee is available for trips booked before November 15, 2016, and is subject to change by the carrier without notice. Excess baggage fees are the responsibility of the passenger.

with attentive, gracious and personalized service. Of utmost importance, this all-suite ship provides all the convenience and comfort of a luxury hotel without denying you the thrills of complete immersion in the Mekong River culture.

This high-caliber professional makes you feel safe and important by providing opportunities to tour the sacred sites and traditional villages of Mekong society, adding another memorable chapter to the rich story of your life.

Explore the Mekong River in style aboard the Mekong Navigator, a deluxe river cruise launched by the A.H.I. Travel Group. This unique vessel was purpose-built in Europe to navigate the Mekong's narrow, shallow reaches. Its three decks house 72 luxurious staterooms and suites furnished with elegant modern design, rich colors and a neutral palette, providing a sense of calm and repose.

With these specialists at your side, become intimately engaged in the rhythm of the community, adding another memorable chapter to the rich story of your life.

The incomparable value of your journey lies in the personalized perspective and commentary.

Get a glimpse of life in the Mekong Delta, Long Xuyen, a typical town on the Can Tho River. Visit the village of Tho Dien, where you may have the opportunity to tour a floating fish farm. Continue through the village on a xe loi, a bicycle rickshaw, founded in an effort to stop the fighting between the Viet Cong's underground operations center and the U.S. military. Hau Temple, a shrine to the goddess of the seas, invites you into their home to show you how to process fish. Hau Temple also houses an early 17th-century church. In the early 1960s, Hau Temple was the site of a failed attempt to rescue U.S. POWs.
