The incomparable value of your journey lies in the personalized care you receive from your Travel Director and the knowledge you gain from expert guides and lecturers, who call this area home.

The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It should weave together discovery, education and humanity, the best elements of any compelling tale. Your personal travel story begins with our commitment to delivering authentic experiences with local people.

The potential of your own story can be realized now. We guarantee you'll never see Peru and Machu Picchu like this. The lush Andean highlands, the strings of dazzling Pacific beaches, the mountainous backcountry of the Sacred Valley, the intriguing town of Cusco, warm, welcoming villages of the Amazon rain forest, the high-altitude white-topped Andes: all will weave together with your own story.

Day 1 | Lima

Depart your gateway city for Lima, Peru. Lunch is optional at the airport. On arrival, your Travel Director will greet you at the hotel. Enjoy an orientation drive through the city, including a stop at the Monasterio de Santa Inés, a 17th-century Dominican convent and school. Enjoy a street-side dinner before heading out into the Amazon River.

Day 2 | Iquitos

Iquitos is located on the Ucayali River, the southernmost headwater of the Amazon River. This afternoon, you will board your Amazon riverboat. Afterwards, take a walk through the bustling market to explore the local culture. At night, enjoy a cultural performance in the rain forest.

Day 3 | Amazon River

The Amazon River is the longest river in the world, stretching over 6,400 miles from the Andes to the Atlantic Ocean. Today, you will explore the jungle on a full-day tour. You will take a leisurely boat ride into the Amazon rain forest and point out tropical flowers, small animals and extraordinary insects and exotic mammals. Tap into the canopy above. Expert guides will assist you in observing the dense jungle vegetation, the wildlife and the indigenous culture.

Day 4 | Amazon River

Early exploration of the Amazon rain forest is an unforgettable experience. After breakfast, you will board your private motorboat and head out to see the river and at least 15 different species of monkeys. Lunch will be enjoyed on your boat while cruising the Amazon. This afternoon, you will arrive at an Amazon eco-lodge situated on 100 hectares of pristine forest. Enjoy room service and a private beach. Optional expeditions are available at an extra cost.

Day 5 | Amazon River

Wake to the sound of nature, sip coffee in the rain forest and see the river from a different perspective. Explore a tropical rain forest on a guided walk. Visit a local community, learn how to make natural dyes and see how locals use the rain forest for their livelihood. Afternoon at leisure.

Day 6 | Amazon River

Today, you will explore the Amazon rain forest again on a guided walk and enjoy a private beach dinner before heading to Cusco. Optional expeditions are available at an extra cost.

Day 7 | Cusco

Today, fly to Cusco, the ancient capital of the Inca Empire. Afternoon at leisure. Optional expeditions are available at an extra cost.

Day 8 | Cusco

Begin your day with a visit to Coricancha, an Inca sun temple. Then explore the Cusco Museum, a sumptuous private collection of Inca artifacts. Visit the Qorikancha, the Inca sun temple. Lunch on your own at a local restaurant. Afternoon at leisure. Optional expeditions are available at an extra cost.

Day 9 | Cusco

Today, you will explore the Cusco area on a full-day tour. Visit the ruins of the former Inca capital, the city of Machu Picchu. This afternoon, you will take the train back to Cusco. Optional expeditions are available at an extra cost.

Day 10 | Cusco

Visit the archaeological site of Ollantaytambo, a fortress and settlement founded by Pachacutec, the Inca ruler. Continue through the Sacred Valley to the ruins of Pisac, an Inca site. Visit the market and then continue to the megalithic complex of Ollantaytambo. This evening, enjoy a local Peruvian home-cooked meal in the company of a local family.

Day 11 | Cusco

Today is free to explore Cusco. Optional expeditions are available at an extra cost.

Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

This trip combines the ease and value of group travel with authentic experiences that introduce you to true Peruvian culture. You will enjoy the camaraderie of traveling with a group, and during your stay, you will experience all the natural beauty of Peru in a way that will create lasting memories.

I am writing to encourage you to join this exciting trip to Peru. We will fly into Lima and then travel to Cusco, where we will visit the ancient Inca city of Machu Picchu. From there, we will journey to the Amazon rainforest, where we will explore the natural world and learn about the local culture.

To register, please complete the enclosed registration form and return it to UCLA Alumni Association. All payments are due by April 1, 2017. If you have any questions, please contact our travel-savvy team at 310-206-0613.

Best regards,
