Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

We invite you to join us for an exclusive UCLA Alumni Travel journey to Vietnam, a country that captivates travelers with its enduring traditions, breathtaking natural beauty, and warm hospitality. Enjoy personal encounters and a behind-the-scenes look at life in this inviting land. Enhancing your understanding of this fascinating country will be George Dutton, Director of the UCLA Center for Southeast Asian Studies and Professor in the Department of Asian Languages and Cultures.

Begin in the capital, Hanoi, touring historical sites and sampling local cuisine. Take a full-day excursion to beautiful Ha Long Bay to enjoy a tranquil boat ride. Fly south to Da Nang and tour the acclaimed Cham Museum. Visit Hoi An and its Old Town, a charming car-free pedestrian zone and UNESCO World Heritage site. Then travel to the ancient imperial capital of Hue and cruise the Perfume River to peaceful Thien Mu Pagoda. After two days of exploring the vital Mekong Delta, your river life experience will leave an indelible impression. Conclude your journey in spirited Saigon (also known as Ho Chi Minh City).

Space is limited to 24 guests, so call today to secure your place on what promises to be a memorable small group tour to Vietnam. This trip sold out in just over a week last year!

Regards from Westwood,

Christel Aragon
Director, Alumni Travel
