A World Apart

The story of travel records itself as a tale of exploration and adventure. From the first small steps that began our ongoing quest to discover authentic experiences, the true value of your journey lies in the places you see and the people you meet. Curious to know what to expect when you visit Europe? Let us introduce you to the capital of celebrations, Prague, and its charming neighbor, Dresden.

Prague

Prague’s Old Town is classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is a remarkable testimony to Czech history. Immerse yourself in the city’s splendid Romanesque, Gothic and Baroque architecture. Explore St. Vitus Cathedral and stroll through the Royal Palace. Learn about the legendary executions performed here in the 17th century at the Old Royal Courtyard. Enjoy an acoustical treat at the Church of Our Lady before Tyn and Prague’s Old Town Hall.

Dresden

Dresden’s history is as varied as its architecture, which ranges from late-Gothic to Art Nouveau. See the three stately castles near the Elbe; the Ciudadella and the Zwinger. Experience the rebirth of this historic city, which was totally destroyed during World War II.
