Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Join us on a cultural adventure to visit medieval European cities and experience the world-famous Danube River. Embark on a river cruise from Budapest to Belgrade, beginning with a stay in the historic city of Belgrade and concluding with three nights in Prague. Czech Republic. The program begins with an overnight flight to Belgrade, where you will stay at a historic Radisson hotel. From Belgrade, we will fly to Budapest, where you will enjoy a two-night stay at the luxurious President hotel. Following this, we will take a three-night cruise on the MS Amadeus Silver, with visits to Bratislava, Vienna, and Prague. The program concludes with three nights in Prague, where you will stay at the Hotel Balkan. This trip is limited to 100 participants, and reservations are being accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Enclosed is a deposit of $600 per person required to reserve your space. Reservations must be paid in full by 75 days prior to departure. Land, cruise, and other services are included in the price. Please call or refer to our website for the most current program information, including dates, details, and availability. Contact information is provided on the next page.
