Walking history lessons about the French Revolution and visit Dijon, the ancient capital of Burgundy; the palace heart down cobblestone lanes. We will spread our wings of Bercy Village, just minutes by Metro from the city center. This area is home to the Paris National Opera, a premier cultural venue. The surrounding streets, squares, and parks comes together to form a haven of commerce and culture. Bercy Village, located in the Bercy Village near the Grand Canal des Ourcq, was once a bustling market. It has since been transformed into a vibrant neighborhood that features ethnic restaurants and boutiques. Today, Bercy Village is a hub for shopping and dining, offering a wide range of options for visitors. After exploring the area, you can enjoy some of the local cuisine, such as the classic French dishes like Coq au Vin or Bouillabaisse. You can also visit the nearby Musée d'Orsay, where you can admire some of the world's most famous paintings, including those by Monet, Degas, and Van Gogh. This day is yours to explore. Perhaps browse the art market in the Marais or visit the world-famous Louvre Museum. Enjoy a relaxing evening with a glass of wine and a moulin de cocktail at one of the many chic bars along the Seine. Local shopkeepers and vendors can make sure you find the perfect souvenir or gift to take home. Enjoy some downtime before returning to Paris.

Day Three b | d

Independent Exploration: Paris and World War II. While the story of World War II is a somber one, it is also a fascinating story of survival and resistance. Explore the sites of occupied Paris and learn about the experiences of the French people during this time. You will have the opportunity to visit some of the significant sites associated with the war, such as the liberation of Paris and the Battle of Normandy. This day is yours to explore. Perhaps take a guided tour of the Latin Quarter or visit the Musée de l’Orangerie. Enjoy a relaxing evening with a meal at one of the many excellent restaurants in Paris.
