Experience Tanzania during the Great Migration

“Let the call of the wild lure you to east Africa’s premier game-viewing reserves.”

Enjoy game drives in custom, comfortably appointed Land Cruisers with guaranteed window seating and marvellous access, perfect for safe, up-close viewing of endemic species.

Stand on the edge of discovery at Olduvai Gorge, where Louis and Mary Leakey uncovered one of our earliest ancestors, and spend a full day at wildlife-rich Ngorongoro Crater—one of the likely places to spot the rare black rhino.

Discover local people and cultures with unique village and school visits to Mto Wa Mbu and a fishing village on the shores of Lake Victoria.

With unparalleled access to Tanzania’s national parks, the guidance of an expert Orbridge Expedition Leader, and luxurious accommodations, this signature journey provides a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to witness the amazing array of wildlife in East Africa.

Savor the suspense as you scan the terrain, following the signals of your guide and remembering not to hold your breath: there, it is possible to encounter lion, cheetah, leopard, elephant, wildebeest, zebras, primates, antelope, gazelle, crocodile, and more than a thousand species of birds.

Search for the thundering herds of wildebeest, the silent stalk of the black rhino, likely places to spot the rare white rhino, and a window seat at Olduvai Gorge, a place to walk over uneven, sometimes slippery ground and get in and out of a 4x4 Land Cruiser.

Explore the ancient landscape of the Serengeti, renowned for its Victoria Falls, look for herds of elephants, giraffe, and hundreds of species of birds.

Visit one of the world’s most prestigious reserves, the Serengeti National Park, and the Ngorongoro Conservation Area, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Uncover one of our earliest ancestors, Louis and Mary Leakey, and discover the rich diversity of wildlife in Tanzania.

Accommodations
Rest your senses in deluxe lodges and tented camps, carefully selected to emphasize wildlife viewing and comfort.

Lake Duluti Lodge (Arusha): Boasting stylishly-curving architecture and design, as well and excellent cuisine and service, Lake Duluti lodge is a perfect retreat for your introduction to Tanzania.

Kikito Safari Camp (Tarangire National Park) — This private camp is surrounded by a landscape of ancient boulders, baobabs, mopane and fig trees, and is located in the principal migratory corridor from the adjacent Tarangire National Park.

The Country Lodge (Ngorongoro Highlands) — Just 10 minutes from Ngorongoro Craters, seems to be a comfortable cottage in a colorful garden setting. Friendly and attentive staff will treat you with warm Tanzanian hospitality.

Serengeti Serena Safari Lodge (Serengeti National Park) — Here, make yourself at home in a festooned circle bed nestled among acacia trees. Surrounded by natural stone wall and wood decor, enjoy modern comforts and views of the Serengeti wilderness.

Kiwazi's Luxury Tented Camp (Western Serengeti) — On a hip stroll overlooking the vast plains of the Serengeti National Park, Kiwazi offers you a luxurious safari experience, with its Victorian-era decor, excellent cuisine, and typical colonial furniture.

Accommodations are subject to change. While specific properties are securing well in advance, it is sometimes necessary to substitute hotels and camps with as-good or better options. All rooms have private bathrooms.

Experience Tanzania during the Great Migration

Savor the suspense as you scan the terrain, following the signals of your guide and remembering not to hold your breath: there, it is possible to witness the amazing array of wildlife in East Africa.

Safari Highlights
With unparalleled access to Tanzania’s national parks, the guidance of an expert Orbridge Expedition Leader, and luxurious accommodations, this signature journey provides a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to visit the unforgettable natural beauty of Tanzania.

Enjoy game drives in custom, comfortable 4X4 Land Cruisers with guaranteed window seating and roof hatch access, perfect for safe, up-close viewing of endemic species.

Stand on the edge of discovery at Olduvai Gorge, where Louis and Mary Leakey uncovered one of our earliest ancestors, and spend a full day at wildlife-rich Ngorongoro Crater—one of the likely places to spot the rare black rhino.

Discover local people and cultures with unique village and school visits in Mto We Mbu and a fishing village on the shores of Lake Victoria.

What’s included:
• Expert naturalist guide throughout
• Deluxe lodges and tented camps
• Intensive 1-day stay from Serengeti to Arusha
• All-inclusive—breakfasts, lunches, and dinners
• Airport transfers for guests who arrived/departed on suggested flights
• Guided tours, drives, vector, walks, and birdwatching, as well as taxes, service charges, and park fees
• Temporary membership in the Flying Doctors Service

On safari, the company and guidance of Orbridge’s expert Expedition Leaders will make all the difference. Meet Dodoli, whose expert creation of the created cruise is contagious, or Salim, who will share with you his fascination and appreciation of the crested crane is contagious; all the difference. Meet Godson, whose expert knowledge of the area will make all the difference. Meet Godson, whose expert knowledge of the area will make all the difference.

Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Tanzania Migration Safari:
12 Days of Lions, Lodges, and Luxury

Reserve your space by November 15, 2013 for an Early Reservation Bonus

Reservations and Travel Planner: Traveling the corners of the globe is an excellent way to learn and appreciate our world. To offer: The actual migration of thousands of grazing herbivores across the Serengeti Plain is one of the greatest spectacles of the natural world and a highlight of this safari.

Trekking with expert naturalist guides in 4x4 Land Cruisers, you will experience moments in the lives of magnificent animals, the breathtaking terrain of East Africa, and the tapestry of local cultures—all while staying in the comfort of deluxe lodges and tented camps.

This is one of my personal favorite travel destinations in the world, and I have visited several times. Call me personally if you have any questions about travel to Tanzania. Space is limited to 20 UCLA alumni and friends, so make your reservations today!

Warm regards,
