Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Empire and splendor. Experience 300 years of Russia on this 9-day/8-night grand tour of St. Petersburg and Moscow. Visit the sights of Imperial Russia, explore the world’s largest Hermitage Museum, bask in the splendor of the Peterhof, and marvel at the beauty of the Winter Palace. Today, only a tiny number of people have access to the perfect spot on the Amber Room. Join us and be part of the exclusive group of visitors who get to glimpse this rare collection of paintings and gilded mosaics!

Your tour begins in St. Petersburg, Russia’s former capital. A city of contrasts, St. Petersburg is a grand architectural showcase, where every street is a canvas of masterpieces. We travel to Russia’s most historical sites including Peterhof and Kerch-Kremlin. Discovering the history of European art and culture, you will learn about the city’s unique cultural heritage.

Moscow’s rich history is evident in its architecture, art, and culture. From the Red Square to the Kremlin, the historic center of Moscow is a must-see destination. We visit some of the best-known landmarks, including the Hermitage Museum and the Winter Palace. The Hermitage Museum contains a vast collection of art and artifacts ranging from prehistoric times to modern times. The Winter Palace, on the other hand, is known for its grandeur and beauty. Both of these landmarks are a must-see destination for any art lover.

Your tour concludes with a flight from Moscow. Thank you for traveling with UCLA Alumni Travel. We hope you enjoyed your trip and look forward to welcoming you again soon.
