Day Ten
A World Apart
The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It involves a world of discovery, a world of learning, a world of new experiences. The world of travel is a world of possibilities, a world of wonder. It is a world that you can make your own. It is a world that you can explore, a world that you can discover, a world that you can learn from. It is a world that you can experience, a world that you can enjoy.
