Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

We’re thrilled to announce that our historic Golden Isles program and more Federal cautions and restrictions on the entry of visitors, should always check travel alerts and watchful networks. You’ll find our means for more information through the Travel Information page, where you can read our updates on the latest tourism information.

A special way to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Golden Isles is to take a trip that includes a variety of activities for adults of all ages. With this in mind, we’ve created a package that will allow you to enjoy the beauty and charm of the Golden Isles.

A special price for this program is $7,295 per person, which includes:

- AAI FlexAir
- Independent traveler
- Independence
- AAI FlexAir
- Independent traveler

The trip will depart from Jacksonville, Florida, with a return from Charleston, South Carolina, to allow you to explore the beauty and charm of the Golden Isles.

For more information, please visit our website or contact us at 800/354-7265.

Sincerely,

Full Day in Savannah, Georgia

You’ll sense a more relaxed pace, as people walk and cycle along the riverfront in this bustling seaport, and you’ll be surrounded by lush, secluded gardens. Historic homes, mansions and steepled churches on cobblestone streets make you feel as though you’ve journeyed to another era, as you might have during Civil War battles. Take in the inviting ambience of its elegant, gingerbread trim. Best of all, the city planners amicably shaped by a medley of diverse cultures, including African slaves, British, Spanish, and Native Americans, making Charleston’s architecture and buildings, smartly accented with ironwork and antebellum gardens. The Lowcountry’s unique character was also proves captivating, from St. Simons Island’s pristine beaches and plentiful wildlife, including alligators, loggerhead sea turtles, dolphins, manatees, egrets, storks and even the alluring, tranquil landscapes of the Savannah River and the bevy of championship golf courses. For its antebellum homes, parks and shops, Beaufort is still nestled along the Ashley River, and you’ll experience the old Lowcountry at its finest. Shaded by huge live oak trees, the aura of Southern Living. Its storied history features “The South’s Best Small Town” in 2017 by readers of Southern Living.

Charleston's beautifully preserved landmarks, historic districts, and charming squares are truly unique. The city is the epitome of Southern grace and hospitality, offering something remarkable around every corner. In its grand historic district, you may feel as though you've traveled back in time. The charming harbor area is full of warm hospitality, and you’ll experience the South's unique culture and heritage.

Savannah, Georgia

Located on the southern edge of the state, Savannah is a unique and charming city. It is the largest city in Georgia and the second-largest city in the Southeast. Savannah is home to over 120,000 people and is known for its beautiful architecture, including the famous Forsyth Park and the Forsyth Park Inn.

St. Simons Island, Georgia

A tranquil slice of island life offers unspoiled beaches and plenty of wildlife. Its placid marshes, coastal waters and brilliant skies are teeming with a variety of marine life, including alligators, loggerhead sea turtles, dolphins, manatees, egrets, storks and turtles. The island also boasts a variety of championship golf courses.

Hilton Head Island, South Carolina

A popular destination for golfers, Hilton Head Island is known for its championship golf courses and scenic beauty. The island is also home to a variety of wildlife, including alligators, loggerhead sea turtles, dolphins, manatees, egrets, storks and sea turtles. It is a great place for a relaxing vacation.

Carriage ride in Charleston
Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Thank you for choosing UCLA Alumni Travel to bring you a trip that will reignite your passion for the region with you. Once you arrive:

• Your travel Director, Christel Aragon, will be your personal guide who understands the historic and current events. The breadth of their knowledge and research is unparalleled. In partnership with our local professional guides who understand the area and who are knowledgeable about the region, you will be in the care of a seasoned AHI travel professional who will manage all the logistics, providing you with a carefree and relaxing experience.

Let us arrange your flights.

AHI Flights:

AHI Travel offers your choice of AHI flights or your own air arrangements to your destination airport. Passengers are responsible for the transfer from the airport to your hotel. A complimentary continental breakfast at the hotel is included for your first morning only. Flights are subject only to penalties assessed by the airlines and other transportation companies concerned. Travelers are responsible for their own return air transportation and who will be totally responsible for providing all related transportation services.

CANCELLATION POLICY:

- Cancellation or change in travel dates, or airline schedule(s), prior to original scheduled departure will result in 100% forfeiture of the entire amount paid which corresponds to the unused services of the trip.
- Cancellation from 120 to 91 days prior to original scheduled departure will result in a $500 fee. Cancellation from 90 to 46 days prior to original scheduled departure will result in a 20% administrative fee to a future AHI Travel program that will include all of the above. Cancellation from 45 to 0 days prior to original scheduled departure will result in 100% forfeiture of the entire amount paid.

On the first page of your Registration Confirmation email, you will receive travel insurance information. We strongly recommend you purchase travel insurance due to the expense involved in planning your trip. AHI Travel is not responsible for any delays, cancelled flights, or lack of travel insurance which may result in fees or losses. AHI Travel’s sales, marketing, advertising, publicity and/or photographic rights are reserved for any delay, cancelled or rescheduled event offered by AHI Travel.

AHI Travel and the Sponsoring Association are not liable for any delays, cancelled flights, or lack of optional extra excursions, trip extensions and accommodations be refunded. Passengers requiring additional assistance must be accompanied by someone who is fit and able to assist them, permanently or periodically use a wheelchair, must be accompanied by someone who is fit and able to assist them.

ALL TRAVELER INFORMATION:

Departure trips are subject only to penalties assessed by the airlines and other transportation companies concerned. Travelers are responsible for their own return air transportation, and who will be totally responsible for providing all returns. Your first morning breakfast is complimentary at your Hotel. The history and culture of the South are woven into the fabric of the region, and many of our services are unique to the area. If you have any specific dietary requirements, please let us know prior to departure so we can accommodate your needs.

Reservations are subject to availability and processed on a first-come, first-served basis. Since space is limited, travel insurance is strongly recommended.

On most trips, the historical and cultural activities are included in your tour price. However, some are optional and please note that any additional expenses will be paid by the individual traveler.
