Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

We invite you to explore one of southern Italy’s most beloved coastal regions where mountains erupt from the Mediterranean and pastel-painted buildings cascade down their sides. From your base in Dylic, Somerto, travel a blended, serpentine ribbon of roads and discover breathtaking villages along the Amalfi Coast. Visit Italy’s most vertical off-road town, taste the delectable cuisine of the Campania region and walk in the footsteps of history at fascinating ancient ruins, including Pompeii and Paestum. Immerse yourself in Italian Lifestyle while in the Amalfi Coast with like-minded travelers, plus enjoy ample free time to make your own discoveries. Space is limited and will sell out quickly, so make plans today!

Discover Amalfi Coast

Journey through the lush countryside to pretty Positano, a celebrated seaside resort that beckoned famously to 19th-century painters. Continue along the undulating coastline to arrive at Amalfi. Here, explore the ancient village and stroll along the breathtaking cliffs and sparkling sea.

Day 3

In the heart of Sorrento, an ancient town that has been abandoned in the ninth century, visit the Museo Archeologico Nazionale, one of the world’s most important archaeological museums. The small seaside town of Herculaneum was covered by ash and pumice when Mount Vesuvius erupted in A.D. 79. The resulting preservation of these two cities is unlike anything else in the world. Marvel at the great temples, characterized by their Doric-style columns, and see everything from mosaics to furniture to frescoes in the two world Heritage sites. The spectacular grounds of the city include ancient defensive walls, the standing remains of three major Doric-style temples, and a variety of improved paving.

Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

We invite you to explore one of southern Italy’s most beloved coastal regions where mountains erupt from the Mediterranean and pastel-painted buildings cascade down their sides. From your base in Salerno, travel a bended, serpentine ribbon of road and discover breathtaking villages along the Amalfi Coast. Visit Italy’s most vertical offshore town, taste the detectable cuisine of the Campania region and walk in the footsteps of history at fascinating ancient ruins, including Pompeii and Paestum. Immerse yourself in Italian lifestyle while deeply in love with this slice of Mediterranean Europe.
