Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Rich in culture and folklore, Ireland has always been the heart of a traveler. It is a fantastic country, with majestic cathedrals, quaint countryside and a history rooted in fascinating Celtic legends. You, too, will be enchanted during our 8-night journey through southern Ireland’s most renowned sites and landscapes.

Listen to the sweet music of the Cliffs of Moher, admire the Blarney’s stone beauty, and immerse yourself in Irish culture. You, too, will be enchanted during our 8-night journey through southern Ireland’s most renowned sites and landscapes. I visited in Ireland, and it was a wonderful experience. The people were friendly and welcoming, and the scenery was breathtaking. I would highly recommend this trip to anyone who loves the natural beauty and historical significance of Ireland. I had a wonderful time exploring the ancient castles, historic sites, and scenic landscapes. It was a truly memorable experience for me, and I would love to visit again someday. Regards from Ireland,
