Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Enter the soul-stirring, romantic spirit of southern Spain on a seven-night adventure in Andalucía. Make your home for the week in a first-class, iconic parador in Antequera, surrounded by stunning panoramic views and the famous cave, La Pasie de las Escaleras, or “Loved Rock.” In the distance: Fuente de Piedra, with its pond, and the salt mountains. Take a helicopter ride near Granada; see the mesmerizing Alhambra. Visit the cave of the Guadalquivir, renounce your no smoking status, and get a taste of the Moorish history in Cordoba. Make your way to Seville and the beautiful Mezquita, the Skateboard Museum, and the Seville Cathedral. Experience the spirit and traditions of southern Spain, the land of corrida and flamenco! The French Riviera lends its allure to the “Jewel of Seville.”

Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Immerse yourself in the intoxicating, colorful culture and history of southern Spain with AHI Travel’s Andalucía tour this September! Led by UCLA professor Ali Behdad, this seven-night adventure in Andalucía will take you from the first to the third week in September. You’ll experience the vibrant atmosphere of Seville’s famous Plaza de Toros, explore the imposing Alcázar in Sevilla, and learn about the beautiful legacy of the Moors: the Heritage; a fascinating intermingling of cultures and religions.

In addition to lectures from Ali Behdad, this tour also features meticulously selected knowledgeable local guides and program officials. You’ll have ample opportunities to explore on your own, get to know locals, and if you have any questions about the beautiful part of the world. Join us in southern Spain by reserving your spot today!
