Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends of UCLA Alumni Travel,

Enter the soul-stirring, romantic spirit of southern Spain on a seven-night adventure in Andalucia. Make your home for the week in a first-class, modern parador in Antequera, surrounded by serene countryside scenery with La Peña de los Enamorados, or Lover’s Rock, in the distance. From there, head north to date palmeras to discover Andalusian heritage, a fascinating intermingling of cultures and religions. You will also visit some of the Broadcast News of the Future, an epic journey of the Moors, the courtyard and towers of the Alhambra in Granada, the iconic red and white towers of La Mezquita in Córdoba, and the imposing Alcázar in Seville.

Other memorable moments await you. A stroll down the centuries-old Alcazar in Seville; a breathtaking view over St. George in Florida; views of the Moorish palaces; and a charming performance.

In addition to the UCLA professor Ali Behdad, you will visit the University of Chicago and the Chair of Comparative Literature, which features its newly-relocated knowledgeable curricula and program of cultural activities. You will also learn about the world’s last surviving University and visit the world’s last surviving University.
