Day 7

Discovery: Split. Sought by poets and painters in search of the Roman ruins of ancient Split. The history of this coastal city is connected to the emperors of Rome, the popes of the Papal States, and the Venetians of Venice. The ocean that surrounds Split today was once the sea that surrounded the Roman city of Illyricum. Join a guided tour of the Diocletian’s Palace, one of Europe’s most preserved Roman structures, and the old town of Split.

Day 8

Discovery: Zagreb. Visit the Antun Augustincic Museum and Gallery and the Zagreb Museum with well-preserved houses from the end of neolithic times. Zagreb is the birthplace of Tito, the village features an open-air museum with the Antun Augustincic Museum and Gallery. This area is a site of many medieval churches, graceful fountains and cloistered squares. In the late 19th century, Zagreb became the capital of a Kingdom of Croatia and Slavonia. Join a special tour of Zagreb, including a visit to the Franciscan Monastery’s Romanesque Cloister. Follow the city’s history from ancient times to Croatia’s Homeland War in the early 1990s, and witness Europe’s oldest working pharmacy.

Day 9

Discovery: Plitvice Lakes National Park. Plitvice Lakes National Park is a series of seven lakes connected by waterfalls. Miles of trails and wooden footbridges wind over, under and through the many lakes, waterfalls and wooded canyons, in a series of unspoiled nature areas. The ten lakes in a dramatic series of waterfalls cascade from one to the next in a series of cascades. The lakes are connected by a series of cascades and waterfalls.
