Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends:

Discover some of the most glorious scenery in North America—from rugged coasts and dramatic bluffs to pine-forested islands and sparkling blue waters. Step aboard the MV Victory II, an elegant 202-guest ship, and experience the idyllic and fascinating heritage of the Great Lakes region and St. Lawrence Seaway.

Spend a day in Montréal and see the Notre-Dame Basilica, Mont Royal, and breathtaking Botanical Gardens. Next, sail to Québec City, the only walled city in North America, before taking a trip to see the beautiful Montmorency Falls. Journey through the Thousand Islands, an archipelago of over 1,800 islands that mark the border between the United States and Canada, and visit Kingston, a town full of Victorian charm and colorful gardens. In Toronto, enjoy a multicultural metropolis full of coastal walking trails and home to some of the world’s finest restaurants. Travel to Port Colborne and view the famous Niagara Falls attractions. Rediscover Cleveland, offering a sophisticated and unique travel experience within a working-class city. Before disembarking in Detroit, explore the Cleveland Museum of Art for a transformative stroll through world-renowned art.

Before coming to UCLA, Professor Jan Reiff lived most of her life in the Great Lakes Region. She attended college on the western shore of Lake Michigan in the region’s largest city, Chicago. Her years studying and working there launched her continuing scholarly interest in cities and their histories. She also lived and taught on the southern shore of Lake Erie in Cleveland. As co-editor of the Encyclopedia of Chicago and her ongoing research on that city, her scholarly interests in the region continues. At UCLA, she is Waldo W. Neikirk Term Chair in Innovative Undergraduate Instruction, Professor of History, Statistics, and Digital Humanities, and teaches in Honors and Freshman Cluster Programs.

This voyage includes an ideal collection of expert-led shore excursions that will enrich your travel experience. Space is limited and sure to sell out quickly, so sign up now to take advantage of this incredible offer. Don’t miss the opportunity to join fellow alumni and sail along the storied St. Lawrence River to the breathtaking vistas of the Atlantic coast—some of North America’s most remarkable and under-explored treasures—with perfect ease and elegance.

Sincerely,

Christel Aragon
