UCLA Alumni:
Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,
Sicily, a sun-drenched multilingual crossroads, abounds with natural beauty. En route, make connections seemingly untold by time and a vast history spanning 3,000 years. On this thrilling eight-night adventure, stand in the shadows of Greek gods and visit a fascinating time capsule filled with remnants of civilization’s greatest treasures.

Begin your journey in Palermo, where you’ll breathe a cultural moment. Visit cities steeped in Greek myths and witness remarkable architecture. Marvel at beautiful ceramics in Caltagirone; then see a wonderous amphitheater that still echoes with the whispers of dramatic playwrights. Conclude with your Sicilian adventure via Lipari, home to world-class volcanoes and natural landscapes. Along the way, indulge in the region’s delectable foods, including authentic Sicilian pizza and savory olive oil. This trip combines security, ease and value of group travel with opportunities for independent exploration to make your Sicily trip unique and special.

Departure from Seattle.
