Be dazzled by the Russian baroque opulent palace. Escape the crowds with early access to the Grand Palace of the Peterhof. Admire Russian folk songs and the mystery of the grounds. Enjoy lunch on your own.

Day 1 | Arrival
Arrive and transfer to the InterContinental Moscow Tverskaya, and enjoy time for lunch on your own.

Day 2 | Moscow
Embark on a historical narrative of the city. Discover the glories and achievements of Czarist Russia. Explore the highlights of the city with a local guide.

Day 3 | Moscow
Start with an informative walk through Moscow. You will visit the Kremlin and Red Square. Visit the ornate St. Basil's Cathedral. And a medieval fortress. At the Armoury Chamber, admire the treasures of the Imperial Palace.

Day 4 | Moscow
Discover the Tretyakov Gallery. Examine diverse historical trends, including Byzantine-influenced iconography, Renaissance art and Baroque of the grand promenades. Enjoy a delicious dinner at a local restaurant.

Day 5 | St. Petersburg
Find your way to the Peter and Paul Fortress. Take a private gallery for the acquisitions of Catherine the Great. Founded in 1712, the Peter and Paul Fortress is the setting of Napoleon’s surrender. The cathedral within houses the tombs of the most famous Russian czars. The Neptune Fountain is known for the sound it makes during high winds.

Day 6 | St. Petersburg
Pursue your own interests for the rest of the day.

Day 7 | St. Petersburg
Dine together at one of the city’s fine restaurants. Then watch the dancers gracefully pirouette, leap and glide in costume during an exclusive performance by the Mariinsky ballet company, founded in 1996. After an introduction from the ballet group’s director, observe the dancers’ intense warm-up exercises at the Mariinsky theatre, founded in 1832, and before the start of the performance, visit the Mariinsky Theatre. The architecture of the thick-walled building is replete with the symbols of the most famous ballet drinks.
