Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Join us on a journey through the heart of Bavaria in Germany, Austria and Switzerland from July 13-23, 2020. This trip combines the security, ease and value of group travel with opportunities for individual exploration. Purposeful itineraries are custom made for you, and the trip is as bucolic as it is bold, evoking a sense of nostalgia while still offering a refreshing perspective.

Compiled for UCLA Alumni Association members, this trip features a historic journey through one of Europe’s most captivating destinations, from Munich to Lindau, the picturesque island located in Lake Constance in southwestern Germany.

A trip to Bavaria with a star performance at the Passion Play. This trip combines the security, ease and value of group travel with opportunities for individual exploration. Purposeful itineraries are custom made for you, and the trip is as bucolic as it is bold, evoking a sense of nostalgia while still offering a refreshing perspective. This trip features a historic journey through one of Europe’s most captivating destinations, from Munich to Lindau, the picturesque island located in Lake Constance in southwestern Germany.

En route, we will explore Germany, Austria and Switzerland, experiencing the history, culture, and beauty that these countries have to offer. We will visit iconic landmarks such as the Tower Bridge in London, the Swiss Alps, and the charming streets of Old Town Prague. Along the way, we will be accompanied by expert guides who will share their knowledge and insights, enhancing your understanding of each location.

In addition, this trip includes round-trip flights to Munich, AHI FlexAir travel, a 10-day tour of Germany, Austria and Switzerland, and access to exclusive events and activities. The trip is designed to provide a unique and unforgettable experience for all participants.
