Reykjavik. Provides electricity for the city of Reykjavik in its immense magma chamber, the plant for the Nordic capital city. See important landmarks, pretty harbor, Harpa Concert Hall, swimming pool, colorful murals and many more sights.

Renewable Energy. Take an informative tour of Hellisheiði, one of the world’s biggest geothermal power plants. Located above an immense magma chamber, the plant provides electricity for the city of Reykjavik and its citizens. Learn how Iceland uses geothermal energy in a sustainable manner.

Settlement Exhibition and Snorrastofa. Centuries of Icelandic history is revealed today. Begin at the Settlement Exhibition in Borgarnes to learn about the discovery of Iceland and delve into the life of Viking and poet Egill Skall-Grimson, one of Iceland’s first settlers. Travel to the historical site of Reykholt to visit Snorrastofa, a center founded in memory of Snorri Sturluson, Iceland’s greatest medieval writer, historian and chieftain. Learn about the legacy and literary contributions of this famous scholar. During your outing, visit two beautiful waterfalls and Europe’s largest hot spring.

Golden Circle and Greenhouse Cultivation. Discover Iceland’s crown jewel and a region of great historical and geological importance. Visit Pingvellir National Park, the original site of the world’s longest running parliament and the meeting point of the North American and Eurasian tectonic plates. Encounter the geothermally active Geysir area, gaze at the Strokkur geyser and see Gullfoss waterfall. Continue to a family-run greenhouse and learn about sustainable horticulture. Enjoy a traditional Icelandic lunch, followed by a stable visit.

Whale Cruise. Encounter some of the world’s most majestic beasts today during a whale watching cruise. Sail in the open water to observe whales in their native habitat. You may see minke whale, humpback whale, harbor porpoise and white-beaked dolphins as well as a variety of local birds.

Snaefellsnes Peninsula. This stunning peninsula is host to mesmerizing landscapes, unique land formations and the stunning Snaefellsjökull glacier. During your excursion, visit Stykkishólmur, a charming village, and explore natural wonders of Búðir, Arnarstapi and Djúpalónssandur.
